

Terms of Agreement and Emergency Authorization

SOL Christian Teen Camp works hard to provide a safe environment in all activities, but I acknowledge and understand that there is no activities without inherent risks. I hereby give approval for the participation of the camper in any and all SOL Christian Teen Camp activities. I waive, release, absolve, indemnify and agree to hold harmless the SOL Christian Teen Camp organization, its affiliates, the organizers, participants and persons/parents transporting participants to or from such activities from any claims arising of injury to the camper, including death or illness, and loss of personal property while at camp. This release is also intended to include all claims made by the camper's family, estate, heirs, personal representative or assigns. I hereby give permission for any and all medical attention to be administered to the camper in the event of accident, injury, sickness, etc., by the camp nurse and/or medical workers until I can be contacted. In case I cannot be reached, any SOL Christian Teen Camp representative is designed to act on my behalf. I further understand that SOL Christian Teen Camp does not provide medical insurance coverage for the camper, and in case of an emergency any medical expense incurred will be paid by me or my insurance. Campers that use tobacco, alcohol, or any form of drugs will be dismissed. Any uncooperative or noncompliant campers will be subject to dismissal. In case of early dismissal, the parent is responsible for transportation of the camper and no amount of the participant's payed cost will be refunded.
